Cape Cod Beer Brewing Up a Storm in New Location

Grand Opening Scheduled for Saturday, March 4th

Hyannis, MA – While the rest of Cape Cod was cleaning up after the first storm of season, Cape Cod Beer was framing its federal and state licenses to brew beer in its new location and firing up the brew kettle for the first of many batches to come. After a whirlwind month of construction, and rigging and hauling the brewery equipment out of its old Main Street location, Cape Cod Beer is settling in at its new home at 1336 Phinney’s Lane in Hyannis.

“It’s been a very exciting and busy 30 days”, explains Brewmaster/Owner Todd Marcus. “The compressed time table and the complexity of moving such large equipment has certainly made it interesting. We’re just happy to be settling in and getting back to what we love to do – brew great beer.”

Cape Cod Beer’s new facility is 3,000 sq feet, located adjacent to the Sear’s Parts & Service Center. The majority of this space will be dedicated to the production and packaging of beer. This is in contrast to the 625 sq feet that Cape Cod Beer has been using since its inception in April of 2004. This significant increase in space will allow Cape Cod Beer to add additional fermentation tanks, a larger brewhouse and subsequently expand its distribution to the entire Cape, and eventually off Cape. Long-term plans include the installation of a bottling line at this location.

The facility will also include a 260 sq foot retail center where Growlers, Cape Cod “Beer Gear” and supplies and equipment for homebrewing and winemaking will be sold. The Grand Opening is scheduled for Saturday, March 4th from 10 to 5pm. Regular tour and retail hours will be identified once the facility is open to the public. Watch www.CapeCodBeer.com for more details.

Cape Cod Beer is Cape Cod’s only microbrewery and has beer on tap at 50 restaurants and bars in the Mid Cape area. Cape Cod Beer is also available in 64 oz refillable bottles (called growlers), available at the brewery and selected local liquor stores in the mid-Cape and upper-Cape area. Cape Cod Beer produces two standard offerings: Cape Cod Red and Cape Cod IPA, plus seasonal favorites such as Berry Merry Christmas Ale, Cape Cod Porter, Spiced Red Ale, Stellwagen Stout, and Cape Cod Summer.
